

Staff Sgt. Jacob N. Bailey / 4th CTCS

Paratroopers practice on land before getting airborne.

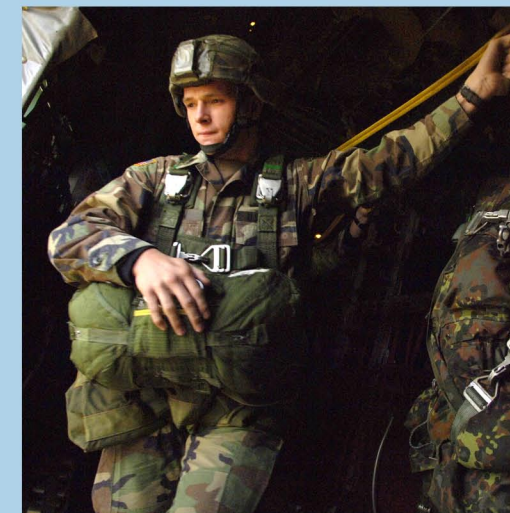

Staff Sgt. Jacob N. Bailey / 4th CTCS

All aboard onto a C-130 Hercules.

Senior Airman Richard Rose / 4th CTCS

Army Sgt. Arthur Walker donates a toy and gets to jump.

Staff Sgt. Jacob N. Bailey / 4th CTCS

There's no turning back now.

DROP ZONE

Members of the Army's 82nd Airborne land on Drop Zone Sicily, Fort Bragg, N.C., during the 8th Annual Randy Oler Memorial Operation Toy Drop Dec. 10. This international community relations operation is designed to collect toys for children of military families on Fort Bragg and Pope Air Force Base as well as those in the surrounding communities. Army paratroopers participate by donating a toy in exchange for a chance to make a non-tactical parachute jump with German and Irish military jumpmasters. Since its inception, Operation Toy Drop has collected and distributed more than 14,000 toys for families of Soldiers and Airmen as well as orphanages in the local community.

Photo by Senior Airman Richard Rose / 4th CTCS

